

The Northfield Press

Published in the Interest of the People of Northfield and Vicinity

No. 4636

NORTHFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS, SEPTEMBER 6, 1946

THREE CENTS

THE NORTHFIELD PRESS Northfield, Mass.

"Entered as second-class matter August 9, 1935, at the Post Office at Northfield, Massachusetts, under the Act of March 3, 1879."

Flocken-Finch

In Russell Sage Chapel on the campus of the Northfield School for Girls Wednesday afternoon, September 4, took place the wedding of Miss Arline Louise Finch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cortland R. Finch, of this town, and Milton Hughes Flocken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis C. Flocken, of Wilbraham. The double ring ceremony was used and the officiating clergymen were the Rev. Dr. Cordie J. Culp, of New Brunswick, N. J., and the Rev. Edward C. Dahl, of Brattleboro. Presiding at the organ was Harry Kellogg, of Springfield, and the soloist was Mrs. Ruth Ekberg, also of Springfield. The chapel, well filled with guests, was beautifully decorated with flowers and greens and with lighted candles. The bride wore a gown of white satin with fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline, long sleeves and overskirt of marquisette with train. She carried a bouquet of white roses and was given in marriage by her father.

The maid of honor was Miss Helen Tucker, of Conshohocken, Pa., who wore a gown with pastel pink bodice, net overskirt and matching tiara. She carried a bouquet of colonial pompons and roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Tacy, of Winchester, N. H., and Miss Gwendolyn Bodington, of Little Compton, R. I., who wore blue gowns and carried yellow and blue colonial bouquets; Miss Alice Smith, of Groton, and Miss Rust Krist, of East Northfield, wearing yellow gowns and carrying blue and yellow colonial bouquets.

Miss Ellen Finch, sister of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid attired in a gown of pink nylon taffeta and carrying a bouquet of pink and white roses.

The best man was Paul Binford, of Hartford, Conn., a cousin of the bridegroom. Ushers were Carleton and Edwin Finch, brothers of the bride, and Theodore Gebeau and Harold Swetland, of Wilbraham.

A reception at the Homestead, the home of Mrs. W. R. Moody, followed the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom were assisted in receiving by their parents. The bride's mother wore a light blue dress and corsage of talisman roses and the bridegroom's mother was attired in navy blue and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Friends of the bride assisted in serving refreshments on the lawn. Miss Betty Jean Purrington had charge of the guest book. The couple left on an unannounced trip.

Mrs. Flocken is a graduate of Northfield School for Girls and has studied at Bates College. Her husband was graduated from Wilbraham Academy and served three years in the navy. He will study at Wesleyan College this fall.

DELEGATES FOR GOP

The Republican State Convention will be held in Symphony Hall, Boston, on Saturday, September 21, at 10.30 A. M. and Northfield will be represented by three delegates. Those named are Mrs. Allen H. Wright, Mrs. Carroll H. Miller and George McEwan with the following as alternates: Ernest A. Parker, George W. Carr and William F. Hoehn. The convention will hear reports and addresses and will be introduced to the candidates for state office. Heading the list will be Lieut. Gov. Robert Bradford who is the Republican candidate for Governor. The convention will decide many important issues and policies and pass on resolutions to be offered the voters of the party.

Lundy-Kehl

Russell Sage Chapel was the scene of a very beautiful wedding the evening of Thursday, September 5, when Miss Janet Margaret Kehl, daughter of Mrs. Shirley H. Kehl, of Parker Ave., and Charles J. Kehl, of Gill, was united in marriage to Richard Dorr Lundy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Lundy, of Springfield. The double ring ceremony was used and the Rev. Dr. Stuart Nye Hutchinson, of Pittsburgh, Pa., officiated. Leon Dunnell presided at the organ and the soloists were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Raymond.

The bride was attended by Miss Gloria Savcheff as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Betty Ann Goodall, of Cotuit, college roommate, and Miss Katherine Moody. Lynn Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker, was flower girl.

Serving the bridegroom as best man was Everett A. Clark, of Springfield. Ushers were Douglass W. Hosmer, of Newton Center, and Donald J. Sundhelm, of Springfield.

The bride wore a gown of white chiffon velvet fashioned with an off-the-shoulder neckline, long fitted bodice, and full-length skirt with short train. Her veil of fingertip length was caught in a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore long white kid gloves and carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white roses and delphinium with a white orchid center. Her attendants wore gowns made also with off-the-shoulder necklines and bouffant skirts in peach, sea-roe blue, yellow and pale pink and carried arm bouquets of contrasting gladioli.

The chapel was most attractively decorated as well as the home of the bride's mother where a reception followed.

Mrs. Kehl wore a gown of sapphire-blue velvet with a corsage of pink roses, and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of chartreuse jersey with a corsage of token roses and scabiosa.

The couple left on an unannounced trip. The bride wore a black gabardine suit with black and white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of the Northfield School for Girls and is a senior at MSC where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Lundy, a graduate of Classical High School, of Springfield, served three years in the army and also is a senior at MSC where he is a member of Lambda Chi Alpha. The couple will reside in Amherst and continue their studies.

MASONIC VISITATIONS

Harmony Lodge of Masons will receive its annual visitation from the deputy district Grand Master, Rt. Wor. George E. Clapp and his staff on Friday evening, September 27, in a special session at the Masonic Hall. It is expected that the members of the local lodge will attend in large numbers. Other visitations scheduled for other lodges are: Mount Sugar Loak, South Deerfield, September 13; Morning Sun, Conway, September 20; Republican, Greenfield, October 3; Mountain, Shelburne Falls, October 11; Mechanics, Turners Falls, October 18, and Bay State, Montague, October 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Parker and children report they had a most enjoyable vacation at camp this summer and are now at their home off Parker Avenue.

Rev. Hazel Rogers Gredler has been spending a two weeks' vacation at East Jaffrey, N. H., on the slope of Mount Monadnock and returns in time for the opening of services at the Unitarian Church September 15.

Neil W. Churchill, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Churchill, of South Vernon, is now located at the naval hospital at Portsmouth and now ranks PhM3c.

New School Teachers

At the close of the last public school year Supt. Robert N. Taylor received the resignation of several teachers and was confronted with the problem of finding new ones during the summer season. He has been fortunate in filling all vacancies except one and the school committee has approved the selections.

M. Carleton Brown, graduate of Bay Path Institute as commercial teacher. Brown has had experience in the schools of Perry, Me., and for 14 years at Suffield Academy, Suffield, Conn. Harold McLean, graduate of Massachusetts State College, will be social science teacher in the high school and will devote some of his time to social science in the Center School. McLean is married and has one son, and has no previous teaching experience. Mrs. Eva Findlay, a graduate of Farmington Normal School of Maine, has been engaged as home economics teacher and director of the school lunch room. Mrs. Findlay has had experience in the Perry, Me., schools and for nine year was home economics teacher in the junior high school at Ocean Park, L. I.

Miss Ruth Sullivan, of Turners Falls, a graduate of Mercyhurst College, Erie, Pa., will teach music and science at the Center School. This is Miss Sullivan's first teaching position. The Grade 2 position in Northfield is still vacant and a substitute teacher will probably have to start the year.

GARDEN CLUB ELECTS

The annual meeting of the Garden Club was held at Alexander Hall Tuesday evening, September 3, with an interesting program by local speakers; Mr. Lawrence presented his impressions of the Brattleboro Flower Show which was attended by several members; Mr. Field spoke on the raising of hybrid vegetables and Mr. Deming recounted his experiment raising peanuts and sweet potatoes. The nominations for officers presented by the nominating committee were accepted and elected by ballot and were: Irving J. Lawrence, president; Grove V. Deming, vice-president; Miss Mary E. Dalton, secretary, and Dr. Edward Fairbank, treasurer. Daniel E. Bodley was named chairman of the program committee, Mrs. Martin E. Vorce chairman for memberships and Miss Mercy Brann chairman of the library committee. The next meeting will be October 7 in Alexander Hall.

Mrs. Julia Ennis, of South Vernon, recently received a visit from her nephew, Philip G. Johnson, of Sharon, who was on his way home from a vacation.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hartwell, of this town, at the Brattleboro Memorial Hospital on Monday, September 2.

Irving M. Walker, 51c, has been spending a furlough at his home here on Glenwood Ave. from his duties as postal clerk at the naval amphibian base at Little Creek, Va. He enlisted in March, '45, and had basic training at Sampson. He was assigned to the U.S.S. Arkansas, then to the U.S.S. Burke.

Rev. George A. Bronson recently was extended the greetings of his many friends upon a birthday celebration and Mrs. and Mrs. Lawrence Lazelle also noted another wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gingras are away to enjoy a two weeks vacation. During their absence the pharmacy will be closed and the newspapers will be at the store of Mr. Avery for distribution.

Miss Martha E. Bollermann, of Bayside, N. Y., has closed her cottage on the Ridge for the summer and returned to her home.

Historical Society

The quarterly meeting of the Historical Society on Tuesday evening, September 3, brought out a large attendance at the museum building on Pine Street with Miss Elsie Scott, the president, presiding. A change in the by-laws was considered and a nominating committee was appointed to bring in a slate of nominations at the next meeting. Mrs. Joseph R. Colton presented a paper on the significance of corn in the early diet of America and quoted largely from Dorothy Giles' book. Consideration was given to marking more historical sites in Northfield and vicinity and it was reported that the "history of the First Parish Church of Northfield" as prepared by the late Charles C. Stearns has been filed with the society. Mr. Colton, the curator of the museum, reported an increased interest in the exhibits as shown and displayed in the various rooms of the museum.

Kenneth H. Walker, son of Mrs. Chester R. Walker, of Glenwood Ave., has been awarded a freshman scholarship at Northeastern University. He will receive a $100 trustee award and major in English. He graduated from Northfield High School this year.

The Putnam family reunion which was held on Labor Day at the camp of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bigelow in the woodlands off Maple Street was its ninth annual gathering. James A. Putnam, of Winchester, N. H., was elected its president; Amos A. Putnam, of North Adams, vice-president, and Bertha P. Clapp, of West Swanzey, N. H., secretary-treasurer.

Legion Auxiliary Elects

At a meeting of the members of the American Legion Auxiliary held recently at the Town Hall following officers were elected:

Mrs. Kay Luciew, president; Mrs. Bernice Hubbell, senior vice-president; Mrs. Madeline Chapin, junior vice-president; Mrs. Stanley Payson, chaplain; Mrs. Katherine White, secretary; Mrs. Ruth Cembalasty, treasurer; Miss Ellen Briesmaster, historian, and Miss Carolyn Miller, sergeant-at-arms.

Installation will be with the American Legion in October.

APPROACHING MARRIAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cembalasty announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Adelia D., to Stanley M. Chula, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Chula, of 290 Conway Street, Greenfield. The ceremony will be September 21, in St. Patrick's Church at 9 A. M.

Mrs. E. E. Symonds, of Highland Ave., has recently entertained as guests Misses Florence and Emily Purrington, of South Hadley; Rev. and Mrs. Wallace Boardman, of Troupsburg, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. James Sprague, of Greenland, N. H., and Miss Grace Bush from Seattle, Washington.

Summer residents and friends provided the beautiful flowers which were placed on the altar at the Congregational Church Sunday morning, September 8, in memory of Mrs. Harriette Bruce and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Bruce.

Outdoors: Darkness and Cold.

Indoors: A Home Warm With New Beauty.

FALL DAYS ARE LONG, DREARY DAYS THAT SOUND OF WINTER. THE LAST WITHERED LEAVES FALL . . . AN OVERCAST SKY HANGS LOW . . . BUT WITHIN, CHEERFULNESS AND BRIGHT COLOR EXTEND THEIR GLOW. IT'S AS EXCITING AS A BRAND NEW HOME TO SEE THE LIFE AND SUNSHINE LOVELY FURNITURE CAN BRING TO YOUR WEARY ROOMS. A NEW SUITE TO REPLACE YOUR OLD ONE . . . AN OCCASIONAL CHAIR . . . A TABLE TO FILL THE SPACES, LAMPS AND MIRRORS TO ADD DISTINCTION. THEN YOUR HOME BECOMES A PLACE OF BEAUTY AND WARMTH WHERE FAMILY AND FRIENDS CAN SPEND THE DAYS AND EVENINGS OF FALL IN PLEASANT AND GRACEFUL SURROUNDINGS.

Emerson & Son

FIVE FLOORS OF FURNITURE

52-54 ELLIOT STREET

BRATTLEBORO

CONVENIENT, COURTEOUS AND EFFICIENT

BANKING SERVICE AT THE

WINCHESTER NATIONAL BANK

Winchester, New Hampshire

Member Federal Reserve System — Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

VERMONT SECURITIES, Inc.

Listed — STOCKS — BONDS — Unlisted

BOUGHT — SOLD — QUOTED

American Building

Telephone 55

Brattleboro

Gold Bond Rock Wool

INSTALLED by an old established Boston company
THAT KNOWS HOW

Branch at 15 Highland St., Orange

EDWIN A. LAWSON, Manager

Tel. Orange 555

Northfield 354

MAKE THE MOST OF SUMMER
Plan an Enjoyable Game of GOLF

At The NORTHFIELD

Save With A Bank Account

Your reward for saving may be a vacation trip, the pleasure of seeing your son graduate from college, the joy of owning your own home . . . that depends on you.
But above any other reward is the feeling of security and self-confidence which a growing cash reserve gives.

This bank will be glad to be of service to you.

VERMONT-PEOPLES NATIONAL BANK

Brattleboro—Established 1821

Member Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation

TOWN TOPICS

The Rev. F. H. Leavitt, of South Vernon, recently entertained his sisters, Miss Emma Leavitt, of Brookline, and Mrs. Nellie Stockwell, of Concord, N. H.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allen and son Roger, of Morrisville, Vt., former residents of this town, recently visited his sister, Mrs. Roy Lamphear and received the greeting of many friends.

Announcement has been made of the marriage in Concord, N. H., on August 24, of Miss Arlene Evelyn Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Williams, of the Farms, and William Faust, of Concord. They will make their home in that city where both are employed at the Rumford Press.

Albert E. Franz of this town has been drawn as a traverse juror for the present Superior Court session.

Recent preachers at the Congregational Church services Sunday mornings have been the Rev. Dr. Robert A. Watson, of Jamaica, N. Y., and the Rev. Dr. William H. Bollman, of Lancaster, Pa., both summer residents here for many years.

The will of the late Elizabeth Campbell of this town recently filed in Probate Court provides that her estate after specific bequests are deducted be divided among her four sisters. Timothy M. Hayes, of Greenfield, was named executor.

The Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Meyer and family have returned to their home, at Fall River but have kept their summer cottage open in Mountain Park for a stay next month.

The Reverend and Mrs. Edward C. Dahl, of Brattleboro, announce the birth of a son, Christopher, at the Brattleboro Memorial Hospital Monday, August 26. Mr. Dahl is a former pastor of the Congregational Church here and his wife is the former Anna Kurko of the faculty of the School for Girls.

Mrs. Florence Phelps has assumed her duties as librarian at Dickinson Memorial Library, having been chosen to succeed Miss Lucy Eveleth who resigned to go to Edgewood Park, Briarcliff Manor, N. Y.

Mrs. Shirley Kehl has returned to her work in the purchasing department of the Northfield schools after enjoying a two weeks' vacation.

The annual conference of the Free Methodist Church was held here for several days, ending September 8. Rev. Herbert J. Gabriel, of Brooklyn, district superintendent, presided at the session and was the conference preacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McDermott and twin daughters, of New Hyde Park, N. Y., have been guests of his parents, the Rev. and Mrs. W. R. McDermott, at their summer cottage in Mountain Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Shine, of Warwick Ave., have returned from a motor vacation trip visiting several places of interest in Maine.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Broadhead and family, whose summer home is on the Ridge have returned to New Rochelle, N. Y., but expect to come up later for a visit and closing of the house.

Laurie L. Harris, Jr., formerly of this town, has been engaged to teach science and mathematics and act as coach for athletics at Powers Institute in Bernardston.

James W. Shea, resident manager for the past eight years of the Middlebury Inn at Middlebury, Vt., has resigned owing to the fact that the hotel has ended its affiliation with the Treadway chain of New England inns. Mr. Shea was at one time a manager of the Northfield Hotel.

The Advent Christian Church of South Vernon has recently been incorporated under the laws of the State of Vermont. Rev. L. M. Spaulding will act as president and A. A. Dunklee is treasurer. Ernest W. Dunklee is clerk. The church is fully organized for effective work.

Members of the local chapter of the Eastern Star have recently been invited to attend Eastern Star functions in nearby cities. Worthy Maron Mrs. Betty Hewitt and Worthy Patron Willis Parker with members were in attendance at most of the events.

CLASSIFIED

FOR RENT—Furnished room near hotel. Business man preferred. Call at 10 Glenwood Ave., East Northfield.

WAITRESSES wanted at the Northfield Hotel for part or full time. Experience not necessary. Good working and living conditions. Call 341.

SALE OF PROPERTIES

"The Press" has just received the information of the probable sale of a large residence on Highland Ave. and of a large estate on Winchester Road. Complete details are not available but will be announced as soon as the contracts of sale have been consummated.

JOSEPH J. BARTUS

Painter and Decorator
Phone 987

Northfield, Mass.

Don't Fail to Visit

THE GIFT SHOP

Next to A & P Store

FOR THOSE GIFTS

To Take Home

Many New Items Arriving

HOUSE OF QUALITY

Since 1911

The Quality
Beverage Shop and Store of Franklin County

Manufacturers of the Famous
GLENBROOK
Ginger Ale and other Beverages

RYAN & CASEY

11 Ames Street

Tel. 6585

Greenfield

HOTEL BROOKS

BRATTLEBORO

The Pickwick Coffee Shop

The Colonial Dining Room

Special Sunday Dinners

Friday Night—Lobsters

All Dining Rooms

Air-Conditioned

Free Parking For Guests

INSURANCE

OF EVERY KIND

Covering Your Needs

Consult Us

COLTON'S

Insurance Agency

Dial 712

East Northfield

Insurance Up To

Full Value

is the only safe way
to cover the full loss.

ARTHUR P. FITT

Insurance Notary Public

East Northfield

F. WILTON DEAN, M.D.

PHYSICIAN—SURGEON

185 Main Street Telephone 722

Hours: 1-3 P.M. except Thursdays

7-8 P.M. Mon., Tues. & Fridays

DR. RICHARD G. HOLTON
DENTIST

Office Hours: 9 a.m. to 12 m.

1:30 to 5 p.m. Tel. 748

Saturday Afternoon Reserved

Bookstore Bldg., E. Northfield

KATHERINE JORDAN, O.D.

ALFRED B. JORDAN, O.D.

OPTOMETRISTS

113 Main Tel. 66 Brattleboro

Hours: 9-5 Saturdays 9-8

Dial 338 for

FUEL AND FURNACE OIL

For Your Requirements

MYRON DUNNELL

TYPEWRITER Headquarters

C. H. DEMOND & CO.

Typewriters Rented, Sold,

Exchanged and Repaired

Ribbons and Carbon Paper

191 Main Street Greenfield

ALBERT B. ALLEN

INSURANCE

278 Main St.

Tel. 5276

Greenfield

Rip wakes up
TO A BARGAIN!

If Rip should now awake.

From a twenty-year snore

He'd find that most things

Are costing much more.

But there'd surely be a twinkle

In the eye of Mr. Winkle.

When he got his '46 electric bill —

He gets twice as much today

For the price he used to pay

When he settled for his nap upon the hill!

